Dear sir/Madam,

Greetings!

As we are committed to maintain the quality of our academic excellence in Webinar, we can only allow selected limited full research papers as per academic standard, to be presented in Webinar in all three days allotted time slot for technical session.

Each presenter will get 20 minutes for presentation and 10 minutes for discussion. This programme is going to be recorded and streaming online simultaneously with the ICPR Web media(YouTube Channel) also.

Selection of research papers will be done by our Advisory committee.

As we have communicated earlier through our detailed brochure that all abstracts received within time will be published in our e souvenir and further all received research papers will be published in an edited book from a reputed publication house, after proper review and recommendations of our eminent panelists. For that you will be communicated properly. All of you are requested to send your abstract and if possible your research paper as soon as possible to make convenient for publication of souvenir.

Please Don't wait for last date i.e. 31st May 2020, up to 20.00 hrs.
